NEWSLETTER OF THE CAMDEN BOWLING CLUB

13th April 2026 Issue: 12

Wednesday night saw an outstanding game of singles between Ed Klaassen and Steve Finnerty. Some saying one of the best singles games seen in some time. Congratulations to both bowlers, especially Ed, taking out this year's senior singles.

The Bunnings sausage sizzle was in full flight today, Sunday, with a number of our members giving up their Sunday to feed the masses and raise money for our Great Club.

Well done to all those that helped out, especially Mark, our tireless President, who had the initiative to organize the event and made sure everything ran smoothly over the day.

At the time of finalizing this week's newsletter, over 800 sausages on a roll were dished up. That's some effort.

And to our Division 3 Ladies Pennant Side winning the Regional Flag and heading off to Windang to play for the State flag.

Well done Ladies!!

Doing Our Bit to Keep Our Greens at Premier Level

How is your delivery?

We are starting to notice that a few bowlers are 'dumping' their bowl on delivery. Unfortunately, we cannot allow this to happen as it does damage the green as shown below.

Please don't take it personally but we will be asking those with an apparent dumping delivery to see the coach to work out whether the delivery can be rectified or any other solution can be found. So, ask yourself, are you too high and dumping, or low, and correct?
