2026 Ralph Coppock Mixed Pairs

This year's Ralph Coppock has been run and won. After being postponed from the scheduled date, the event went ahead on Friday with a full field of bowlers. Teams came from as far as away as Braidwood and Port Macquarie showing the interest this yearly tournament holds. Everyone appeared to enjoy themselves but, in the end, there can only be one winner. Congratulations to Mags and Jono Milligan from Austral Bowling Club. Well played. All the other place getters are listed in the weekly results below.

The happy winners in front, Margaret and Jono Milligan with the Coppock family from L to R, Chris, Mike and Paul making the presentations.

Don't Just Watch the Bowls: 6 Lessons Club Bowlers Can Learn from the Australian Open

The Australian Open is one of the highlights of the lawn bowls calendar. It brings together international stars, leading Australian players, emerging talent and thousands of everyday bowlers, all competing across clubs on the Gold Coast. For those watching from home, it is easy to become completely focused on the result. Who is holding shot? Who won the end? Who progressed to the next round?

But the Australian Open can offer much more than entertainment.

It is also an opportunity to study how high-performing players approach the game. Look beyond the final result and you will begin to notice the decisions, routines and habits that separate consistently successful bowlers from the rest. That does not mean you should try to copy every delivery or play every shot you see. Elite players have developed techniques and tactical abilities suited to their own games. Instead, watch for the principles behind what they do.

Here are six lessons club bowlers can learn from watching the Australian Open.
