Ladies Six a Side

On what turned out to be a beautiful spring day on Friday, the Ladies held their annual Six a Side tournament. With a full field of sixteen sides making 32 teams, the greens were full to capacity.

Congratulations to the winning side from Dapto with second place going to Austral, third to Picton and fourth to Austral. Well done, Ladies

The winning side from Dapto

State Champion of Champion Singles

Section winners today were Gary Trick, Bruce Redman, Mick Pinkerton, Steve Finnerty, Mick Everingham, Glen Hoddy, Ed Klaassen, Bruce Turton, Peter Deall, Lincon McLaren, Cory Eason, Guy Wilton, Bob Hodge, Kevin Harris. The knockout rounds and dates are shown below.

Apologies with results from Bowlslink today. There was an unresolvable problem that prevented results going in. We're working on it but with this particular competition it looks like we will be using the old hard copy system.

Lawn Bowls Foot Placement: One Less Variable in Your Delivery

A more consistent lawn bowls delivery can start before you even move. This week we look at how your foot placement and alignment on the mat can help remove unnecessary variables from your setup, why your position on the mat should stay consistent, and how the outside of your bowling-side foot can help guide your intended line. A simple area to check, but one that could make a real difference to how repeatable your delivery feels....
