BOWLS LAW: Rules of Etiquette:

- a. Always acknowledge kindly a good shot by opposition and never applaud unlucky shots that go your way. Admit a lucky shot with good grace.
- b. NEVER say 'thank you' for a bad shot that goes your way.
- c. Do not criticize the playing surface.
- d. Do not criticize the performance of colleagues. Everyone is there to enjoy themselves and is trying hard. No one plays a bad shot on purpose.
