FRIDAY 29/09/23 SCROUNGERS

Numbers were down with only twenty players turning up on a balmy evening for scroungers. Making the final were the Young Gun Josh Lord, “Curtains” Pinko, the Boss Mike Ryles and the persistent Ken Morrell. Mike, going into the last end without a score on the board trailed the jack with his last bowl to score a full book of 6 points and come from behind to take the money. The remaining three were on equal points so split the balance. The small crowd of onlookers gave Mike a rousing cheer at his marvelous feat.

SATURDAY 30/09/23

BOWLS LAW: The skip of Team A is looking for a long end so his leader put the mat half way between the ‘t’ and the ditch. When the skip of Team B comes to the mat he objects saying that the end is dead as the mat is illegally placed. Is he correct?

Answer: No. Under law 6.1.4 no player has the right to challenge the position of the mat once the first bowl has been played in that end.
