BOWLS LAW: The skipper of Team A plays his bowl which joins a circle of bowls around the jack. The skipper of Team B plays his bowl and while it is running down the green the third of Team A steps forward and does the 'finger thing' and declares they have the shot. The skipper of Team B is not happy and calls the umpire. What does the umpire do?
Answer: under law 13.4.1.1 he warns the third of Team A that once his skippers bowl comes to rest, he must stay out of the head. If he does it again his skippers last bowl will be declared dead and removed.
