ROOKIES PAIRS:

At Austral Peter Deall & Greg Reynolds won their section but lost their first Knockout game.

At Penrith Chelsea Renouf & Garry Pauley went all the way winning a trip to State Finals at Raymond Terrace. They won five games in the day and the last one on an extra end!

A quiet note: Chelsea's parents Melinda & Jarrad Renouf also won their way to Raymond Tce defeating the fancied Austral Pair of Jordan Mullan & Joshua Ingram in the final.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL CAMDEN PLAYERS. (and Chelsea's parents)

Camden hosted a section of Rookies Pairs on Saturday where our Bowls coordinator thought he was back on the tools working a full day with overtime spending 11.5 hours at the club. He was tired, satisfied, pleased, fulfilled and rewarded with a warm rosy glow. The only thing he wasn't was paid.

Heartfelt thank you to all volunteers and officials for making the day successful.

BOWLS LAW: The leads in a game of pairs have delivered their bowls when it is noticed that both the mat and the jack were placed on the wrong lines. Do they continue play, place both the mat and jack onto the correct line or declare the end dead and start again?

Answer: None of the above. The mat is placed on the correct line Law 6.2.3 but the jack stays where it is Law 9.7 will count.
