

CAMDEN MENS BOWLING CLUB LOCKDOWN NEWSLETTER

29/08/2021

Well this is it. The last newsletter. When we first went into lockdown I set myself the task of producing a newsletter until the end of August when we were due to be released. However there is only so much bullsh*t one can write about nothing and still sound credible.

Rumour coming through has it that only those vaccinated will be allowed on licensed premises. This also includes the bowling club as our greens are within the bounds of a licensed premises. How this is going to be checked or enforced is yet to be revealed. We urge all our members to get vaccinated so that they can play bowls when we open up.

Zone 5 has declared Bowler Of The Year Awards:

Junior	Katie Astley	Wallacia Wildcats
Open	David Hearn	Hazelbrook
Reserve	Jeff Nunn	Blacktown Workers
Senior	Mark Langfield	Austral Eagles
Club of the Year	Austral Eagles

Seen on a sign in a park: "And in the end mankind used so much toilet paper they wiped themselves out"

How things get changed. Recently eldest granddaughter complained tiredly that she 'was just so bored' so Poppy suggested they make a movie with the video camera in their iPad thinking this might take about three days.

"What can we make a movie about?"

"Well" suggested an imaginative Poppy "there's four of you why not about three princesses and a prince go on a picnic?"

"And they are attacked by a monster dog?" exclaimed an inspired granddaughter.

An hour later we had a movie about two princesses, a fairy and a Buzz Lightyear going on a picnic and being chased by a monster Poppy! (the dog wouldn't co-operate)

On my morning walk I saw,
A scene unseen before.
So I paused to look around
And thereby broke the law.

Fruit was on the menu,
But we'd been down to Bunnings store.
We had left home once already
So we broke the law.

In the aisles of woollies,
While shopping for some more,
My trolley touched another,
It's how I broke the law.

Sunday arvo out.
We hadn't been before.
Crowds down at the cycle track.
Everyone broke the law.

We ordered up a take-away
And waited like before.
Chatted with the customers
That's how we broke the law.

Covid's everywhere,
Killing by the score.
I find it quite perplexing
That I'm the one who broke the law.

Well

Stay safe, keep your distance, wear a mask, get vaccinated and keep fit so we can all get back to bowls soon. Now, to quote Arnold Schwarzenegger's Terminator "I'll be back."
