BOWLS LAW: The second in Team A points out that a bowl near the boundary is out. His skip has a look and picks the bowl up intending to place it on the bank but the skip of Team B objects. What happens?

Answer: Under Law 37.1.4.1 the skips must agree before a bowl is moved. The skip of Team B places the bowl back to where it was.

If they then cannot agree that the bowl is in the correct position the umpire must be called. Law 17.3 or Law 40.1.5
